Comedians Evaluation – Missing Comedians

Visitor comments: Comedians visitors would have liked included in the exhibition

Curating an exhibition is all about making a selection and telling a story.

For the Comedians exhibition, 60 photographs were selected from the collection at the National Portrait Gallery. Sunderland was keen to discover which comedians visitors would have liked to have seen included in the exhibition. Who would you have included and what might be the reasons that some photographs of Comedians have not been included?
