Creative Careers – Getting Started is an exciting new website that takes you behind the scenes of an exhibition and offers inspiration, ideas, skills and practical experience about working in the creative industries.

Hear how industry professionals and students started working in Museums and Galleries; discover how to create an exhibition; run a marketing campaign; design an exhibition space and run events. Get inspiration for assignments; down-load real-life resources and explore career pathways.

Developed by the National Portrait Gallery in partnership with Museums Sheffield, Sunderland Museum & Winter Gardens, Plymouth City Museum & Art Gallery, Southampton City Art Gallery.
